"Fremont, O., Dec. 12, 1904.—Jon Jackson, one of the best known tenors in America, is gifted with a voice of uncommon beauty. He has much grace in his art and style of rendition. It is a voice of fine quality, and he has it under control at all times. The combination of all these qualities invests his song with great charm. Dr. Jackson is assured of an enthusiastic reception at any future visit to this city."—The Daily News.

A Creeping Death.
Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

The saloon cares nothing for prayers or resolutions. The only thing it fears is political detestation. As long as it can dominate in local politics, just so long will it dictate state and county legislation. It cares nothing for having to pay into the county or state treasury a stiff license fee, for it only creates a monopoly of the business. It is perfectly willing to contribute to public charities, because it is good advertising and throws dust in the eyes of those who are unable to distinguish between principle and policy. The devil is perfectly willing to aid in charitable and even religious work, if he is only made chairman of the committee of ways and means.—Missouri Issue.

State Sunday School Work.
According to reports from all parts of the State the condition of the Sunday school work at the present time is most favorable. At present the interest of the association workers is central in the 11th annual international convention of Sunday schools associations to be held in Toronto, Can., in June. Vermont is entitled to 16 official delegates to this convention, and the association is working to send at least 100 delegates besides this number. The official delegate from this city is F. S. Pease. G. F. North, president of the State association, and the Rev. Mr. Fuller will also attend from this city. The delegates from this state, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and southern Massachusetts will go to Toronto in a special train, which will leave Boston June 21 and arrive there the next day.

All This Week.
Colonial Stock company. The management of the Colonial Stock company believe in giving their patrons full value for their money and by so doing they are carrying 3 up-to-date vaudeville specialties in connection with their line of popular plays. Although the Colonial company is new to our city, no doubt they will be welcome visitors to Barre after their week's engagement here. Ladies' night, Monday night, the beautiful play will be presented, "In the Trenches." Seats on sale at Red Cross Pharmacy.
